What Makes Life Here Special?

Community and Friendship: One of the most valued aspects of FK boarding life is the strong sense of community. Shared meals and evening conversations foster lasting friendships, giving students the comfort of knowing they are surrounded by people who genuinely care.

Independence and Responsibility: FK boarding life offers an excellent opportunity to learn independence. Students manage their schedules, chores, and personal growth, preparing them for future responsibilities. This balance of freedom and structure helps build confidence and essential life skills.

Extracurricular Fun: Life at our boarding house goes beyond academics. With a variety of sports, arts, and special events, there's always something exciting happening. Students enjoy engaging in activities and clubs that allow them to explore their interests and passions.

Supportive Environment: Our staff is dedicated to providing guidance both academic and emotional wellbeing of the students. We ensure that every student feels seen, heard, and supported, creating a nurturing atmosphere. Ms. Hardness, our
